INTERNSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT

PRIME TIME SPEAKERS BUREAU is a full service national speakers bureau in the business of locating and arranging for high profile external speakers from business, motivation, technology and healthcare to address corporate meetings.

We are offering a semester internship to a college student who would like to learn about the speech industry.

Must be a senior or grad student business/marketing major, computer literate, and creative.

You will be involved in all phases of business development including making contact with clients and speakers. Website design and maintenance experience is a plus.

This is an unpaid semester long internship. Students generally work from home with very flexible hours.

To apply, please send a brief cover letter and/or resume to Julie@primetimespeakers.com

Thanks so much,

Julie A. Sloway
President
